

Unexpected Magic Vocabulary Words

oboe: n

1. a woodwind instrument having a slender conical, tubular body and a double-reed mouthpiece.

impertinent: adj

1. intrusive or presumptuous, as persons or their actions; insolently rude; uncivil

orchestra: n

1. a group of performers on various musical instruments.

lumbered: v

1. moved clumsily or heavily, especially from great or ponderous bulk.

cringe: v

1. to shrink, bend, or crouch, especially in fear or servility; cower.

loathingly: adv

1. with strong dislike or disgust.

choreographed: v

1. composed the steps and dances for a piece of music or ballet.

flabbergasted: adj

1. overcome with astonishment; amazed; astounded.

reception: n

1. a function or occasion when persons are formally received.

seamstress: n

1. a woman whose occupation is sewing.

amused: adj

1. pleurably entertained, occupied, or diverted.

squeamishness: n

1. easily sickened or nauseated, as by the sight of blood.